

2019 DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE

Twyla Ross

Accounting Technology

“Success isn’t about how much money you make, it’s about the difference you make in people’s lives.”

- Michelle Obama

Twyla D. Ross was born and raised in Cuero, Texas. She graduated from Cuero High School in May 1996 and immediately joined the United States Navy. She honorably served eight years in the military.

While on active duty, she attended college at Florida Community College at Jacksonville (FCCJ), and graduated in the summer of 2007 with an associate of applied science degree. Twyla also received her bachelor of science in business administration, with minors in management and human resource management from Columbia College University in December 2008.

In 2017, she decided to go back to college and pursue her degree in accounting technology at San Antonio College. Twyla will graduate from SAC in the spring of 2019 with an associate’s of applied science degree in accounting technology. She is an active member of the Phi Theta Kappa - Beta Nu Honor Society.

Twyla plans to stay at SAC for another semester to increase her knowledge and understanding of the Spanish language. Her dream is to help people in the Bexar County community resolve tax delinquency issues and account balances owed to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).
