Alexander Ambrozaitis

MUSIC

With GOD, all things are possible.

Matthew 19:26

Alexander Ambrozaitis was born in Detroit, Michigan, and journeyed to Texas in 1986 as a Tejano musician. Since childhood, he has always performed music either in church or other musical venues. As a professional musician, he has always strived to learn more and become better at his craft while making a living by doing so. He has recorded and performed on several albums in Latin, contemporary jazz, and gospel genres.

While attending San Antonio College, he gained needed knowledge and better understanding of the intricacies of music and performance. The ability to work with knowledgeable professors gave him a much better insight towards his musical goals.

He serves as a chaplain's assistant, soldier, and musician in the Texas State Guard and as the music and choir director at Second Baptist Church in San Antonio.

Since completing his associate in arts degree, he is now planning to finish his bachelor's degree at UTSA in music performance and is also considering jazz studies, giving him the ability in the very near future to go into teaching and helping others learn music and to go after their musical goals.
