Richard Jordan Jr.

KINESIOLOGY

“Books are infinite in number, and time is short, therefore the secret of knowledge is to take what is essential. Take that and try to live up to it.”

Swami Vivekananda

Richard L. Jordan Jr. is 32 years old, a father, a small business owner, and a first-generation, non-traditional, full-time college student.

Born in Galveston Island and raised in San Antonio, he is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Robert E. Lee High School. He is a proud student at San Antonio College majoring in kinesiology with a minor focus in psychology.

With a GPA of 3.96, he has been featured on the President’s List every semester since spring of 2021. He participated in Alamo Colleges Student Ambassadors, Student Leadership Institute, Phi Theta Kappa Honors Society, National Society of Leadership and Success, the Honors Academy, Trio/STEM and SACNAS.

Richard will be attending the University of Incarnate Word on a presidential scholarship to complete his career goal of obtaining an undergraduate degree in pre-occupational therapy. His academic goal is to become a doctor of occupational therapy and have a chance to study a career related to his passions, which has inspired his dreams to come true thus far.
