“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; Knock, and it will be opened to you.”

Jesus Christ

This is the story of Angelica Maria Vargas, a 43-year-old woman with a big and beautiful family. She is married to her soulmate, and they have six amazing children and two adorable grandchildren. They are her pride and joy, and she loves them more than anything in the world.

She is also a proud Hispanic woman, and the first one in her immediate family to graduate from college. She is passionate about helping others in her community. She volunteers as a Sunday School teacher at her local church, where she provides support and guidance to the next generation.

She enjoys being of service very much, and she feels blessed to be able to make a difference every day. She is also a lifelong learner, and she is always looking for new opportunities to grow and improve herself.

She likes to read books, take online courses, and attend workshops and seminars. She believes that education is the key to success, and that it's never too late to pursue your dreams.

Her goal is to become the best legal professional and excel at every task put in front of her. She thinks that life is a journey and that we should always strive to reach our full potential. She is grateful for everything that she has achieved so far, and she is excited for what the future holds.
