

I Am SAC Proud Nicky Delaunay Biography

The son of a SAC sociology professor, Nicholas or “Nicky,” was destined to go to college.

Always ahead in school, he graduated from NEISD’s Academy of Creative Education (ACE) in 2016 after transferring from Harlingen High School during his junior year.

That summer, Nicky enrolled at San Antonio College and immediately began to get involved with extracurricular activities.

While he is currently the President of the Campus Activities Board, Nicky has also served as a Student Ambassador and is helping relaunch the SAC Cheer Team. As well, he is a member of the Gay and Lesbian Alliance (GALA) student organization.

A proud gay man, Nicky is a strong advocate for LGBTQ students. He believes in a safe learning environment for all, and he loves that SAC is so diverse.

Nicky is planning to major in Business Administration, and hopes to transfer to UTSA by Spring 2018.

When asked what advice he would give to an incoming freshman, Nicky says, “This is a training ground for the real world; don’t be afraid to take advantage of that.”

Nicky is social, friendly, active, determined, involved, LGBT, and SAC PROUD.
